SURPRISES AT WASHINGTON PARK.

For an off day at Washington Park some very attractive racing was given to the patrons of the track yesterday. The largest Monday crowd of the meeting was on hand, and it is estimated that at least ten thousand persons enjoyed the afternoon's sport.

The most exciting contest of the day turned up in the fourth race in which was entered a large number of the best sprinters in the west. The winner proved to be that speedy May & Sons colt, The Rush who ran one of his best races. Off in front he was luxuriant of speed, leading all the way, but had to be driven to the limit to stall off Tayon's great bid at the end, passing over the line a nose in the lead. Tayon's finish was an impressive one and he would have won in another stride. The well thought of Headwater performed far below expectations and was a well spent horse at the finish. Sevo ran an excellent race, but tired slightly in the closing strides. George Arnold was slow about getting to going on his stride, but made up ground when down the last quarter. He is hardly at his best.

Specific, under a masterful ride by Bullman, beat The Conqueror II. in the fifth race by the shortest of margins. On paper the Vincent colt appeared to have a mortgage on the race but Dominick apparently laid out of it too long and made his run just a shade too late. The colt at that ran far below expectation and performed nowhere near to the showing he made in the Oakwood Handicap when he ran second to Robert Waddell. On the way to the post Specific wore blinkers but they were ordered off by the judges as he had not worn them in his previous race.

Rome Respass' good colt Mr. Brown was in a running mood yesterday and simply "breezed" away with the purse in the third race. Henry Burt was allowed, on sufferance, to lead for the first three quarters, when Knight turned the son of Bramble loose and he bounded to the front with a whirl. He then won as he pleased by three and a half lengths from John Bright, who beat Favonius two and a half lengths for second place. Favonius' race was a disappointment, as he was reported to be at his best and had worked in fast time. Fancy Wood must be a filly of moods, as with her light impost of ninety-five pounds she put up a shabby performance, quitting badly after running a short three quarters.

The first split of the mile and a quarter race was taken by Egyptian Prince, who went to the front in a leap after the first seven-eighths had been run and romped home the easiest of winners. Alaska was second and Tammany Chief third.

Moses took the second part of the long race in a somewhat handy fashion going into the lead soon after the first half had been run and remaining there to the end. Leo Newell barely lasted long enough to beat the fast closing G. W. W. for second money.

Evidently a number of owners at the track do not think that Robert Waddell is an invincible three-year-old, for ten others of his age are named to start against him in the Drexel Stakes this afternoon. By reason of penalties and allowances the weights range from 124 pounds on the American Derby winner down to 105 on Monograph and Admonition. It is a dash of a mile and the presumption is that some of the lighter weighted ones will essay the task of carrying Robert Waddell along so fast that his high weights will tell when it comes down to a hard finish. Aside from this main feature of the day, the other races have so filled as to insure racing up to the high standard of about the best meeting ever held at Washington Park.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The death of Pierre Lorillard removes one who has long been a familiar figure in racing on both sides of the Atlantic. In the early seventies, when Jerome Park, Long Branch and Saratoga were the only tracks of much consequence near New York, he and his brother George kept up powerful racing stables and annually finished in the front rank of winning owners. His fame as an owner was firmly established abroad and enhanced in this country when he took his horses to England and won the Derby and St. Leger with Froquois in 1881 as the culmination of a campaign that began at Newmarket Heath in 1879, when the fine old gelding Parola mightily shocked England by running away from the then "horse of a century," Isonomy, in the Newmarket Handicap, and followed this up by winning the City and Suburban and Great Metropolitan Handicaps, Cheshire Stakes and Epsom Gold Cup in rapid succession. In recent years his racing operations were mainly in England in partnership with Lord Beresford, although his colors were frequently seen last year and the year before on the New York tracks.

It is said that Kinloch Park track will surely open about the end of the current month and will run ninety days. The Florissant track is fast and pretty. The most exciting racing ever seen in a track was seen there last fall. No faster races and no such exciting nose finishes between half a dozen horses ever were seen anywhere. The class of the horses and of the riders were quite up to that seen anywhere in the west. The fact that Jack Chian started was enough to make the meeting a success. There are better starters than Colonel Chinn, but none in whom the public has such complete confidence. It is said that Colonel Chinn will start at the coming meeting at Kinloch. This goes a long way toward assuring its success. Mr. Chinn has not yet announced the name of the presiding judge, but he says he will be a man of great national repute.

Of course, the opening of Kinloch will provoke a race-track war, with its attendant evils, but that is the lookout of the tracks. The running turf as it exists today is not such a sublime and beautiful thing that the world could not survive its extinction. There seems to be scarce enough "play" about St. Louis to sustain one race track, but if two want to squabble over it that is their business. The public interest in their battle is limited to the securing of a fair field and no favor.

Commando was seriously injured in the running of the Realization Stakes at Sheephead Bay on Thursday. When Commando reached his stable after the race it was found that his off fore foot was bleeding freely, and at the same time it was thought he had cracked his hoof. Upon examination it was found that it would be necessary for Commando to have absolute rest for possibly the remainder of the season. Mr. Keene, it is said, is determined not to run the Domino colt again until he is absolutely fit and well, as the injury sustained is of a nature that requires many months to cure. The disablement of the colt will be regretted by all lovers of the turf, and in a measure it explains his defeat in the Realization Stakes.

A foreign book was to have been opened at the Newport track yesterday but opposition developed which finally led Manager Fowler to postpone the matter, for a time at least. It is said that the jockeys at the track notified him in a body that they would not ride and risk out-lawry if the foreign book was put in operation, and many owners took the same stand.

Time, 24%, 49, 1:14%, 1:41%, 1:48%.

Winner—B. c. by Inspector B.—Tommie Bell. Went to post at 2:30. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second driving. Eloim favored the cuppy going, displayed both speed and gameness and was best. Lucky Star galloped in behind the winner and appeared able to run past him when ready, but failed in the last furlong, however. Alsike made up ground in the last half. He favored this kind of track last year. Seminole got off badly and was badly handled throughout. His rider picked out the worst going all the way, but in spite of these drawbacks, the colt was going strongly at the end. Nitrate was under a drive to keep up from the start. Survivor ran poorly. Scratched—26199 Bombshell, 110; 22913 Annov, 107; 26463 Ethics, 100. Overweights—Survivor, 3 pounds; Ninonia, 2. Eloim, show, 8 to 5. Lucky Star, show, out. Alsike, show, 6 to 5. Nitrate, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 11, 23, 35%, 48, 1:01%, 1:08.

Winner—B. c. by St. Maxim—Miss Dixie. Went to post at 3:00. At post 10 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Dixieline, lucky and perfectly handled, outclassed the field with the exception of Faranlass, which broke green, ran around the field, closed an immense gap and finished like a good one. Byrne of Roscrea and Musidora put up rattling good races. Valley Forge for a green one is worth remembering and has worked fast trials. Homestead is a good looker and his race indicates something useful.

Scratched—26420 Alibert, 110; 26442 Frivol, 107. Overweights—Woden, 3 pounds. Dixieline, show, 1 to 3. Faranlass, show, 4 to 5. Byrne of Roscrea, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 24%, 49%, 1:15%, 1:41%.

Winner—Br. c. by Star Ruby—Tyranny. Went to post at 3:40. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily. Vitellus was under a drive from the start to keep with striking distance of Handwork who appeared to be going very easy and seemed a certain winner until in the stretch when the Morris colt suddenly drew up on even terms and came away rather easily. Handwork displayed scant courage in the race, quitting with his mouth wide open, still he may not have recovered from his last race and ran too badly to be his true form.

Scratched—(26545) Roehampton, 114; (26438) Dublin, 114; 26545 The Musketeer, 114; 26465 Scurry, 111; 26545 Anna Darling, 101.

26578 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. $1,000 added. 4-year-olds and upward.

Ind	Horses	A	Wt	St	1/4	1/2	3/4	StrFin	Jockeys	Owners	O	H	C	P

Time, 12, 23%, 48%, 1:14.

Winner—Ch. h. by Amphion—Isia. Went to post at 4:05. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Isidor was much the best today, easily shook off Sanders at the head of the stretch and finished going away. Sanders swerved all over the track in the drive to the wire, finishing on the extreme outside. Magnificent is a confirmed eulker, spilt several starts by refusing to break and is a very unreliable horse. He got away running and put up a very fair race. Oliver Mc, outclassed, was closing well at the end. St. Finnan was worn out early, due in a great measure to his running in the heavy going on the rail for the first three furlongs. Fabius is very ordinary.

Scratched—26101 Knight of Rhodes, 132; 26438 Kinnikinnick, 132; 26443 May W., 123; 25919 Roxane, 113. Overweights—Magnificent, 2 pounds. Isidor, show, out. Sanders, show, out. Magnificent, show, evens.

Winner—B. c. by Ben Strome—Maria D.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Man o' War broke running and under first class handling won decisively. Juvenile was in the bad going throughout, ran a good race and must be in very good form. Succasunna closed a gap, finished strongly and will be heard from early. Carroll D., favored by the cuppy track, appeared sure of second money, but quit right at the end and ran out. Crisscross showed fine speed and hung on well. Optional began very slowly, losing ground and lack of speed in a marked degree today. Playlike and April Shower also were on from the start.
Scratched—(26381) O'Hagen, 109; 26174 Elizabeth Jane, 99; 26546 Emma A. M., 99; 26576 Lady Sterling, 93.

Winner—B. c. by Charaxus—Ethics.
Went to post at 5:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Ethics was easily the best and outclassed the field at the weights and in the going. Hammock was a good horse today, but badly ridden. He was going strongly at the end. The track conditions favored him and Fatalist. The latter outran in the first part of the race closed walk at the end and ran a good race at the weights. Bombshell, minus blinders refused to stay, sulking in the last half. MacLeod of Dare cannot beat this kind.

WE ALSO GAVE FIVE SATURDAY

Anybody can pick winners once in a while, we pick them always. No humbug or guessing with us. Any of our patrons will tell you we never fake or advise them to plunge on horses that are not within 20 pounds of their best form. When we advertise a special we have one, and followers of the races that do not take advantage of same are losing time and money. Of course we have much to contend with in the way of envious competitors. But when it comes to a case of survival of the fittest we are always on deck. Avoid being humbugged and for a reasonable amount get the best information that money can buy. We employ the best timers in the business, are under an enormous expense all the year around, but manage to more than hold our own. We have as steady patrons some of the shrewdest form players and bettors in the country. Those that stick to the game all the year around find our information incomparable.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Barbee, off in a good position, was the best. He was perfectly ridden. Kid McCoy, well handled, ran to his notch. He had no excuses. Ransom closed stoutly. Prince Stonemonth prefers a soft track. He ran well to the stretch, but stopped in the closing contention.

Went to post at 4:08. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Tom Collins is a vastly improved horse. He appears to be able to run fast on any sort of a track nowadays. After racing Matt Hogan into submission he came on and won in a mild drive. Matt Hogan had no excuses. He was off well and perfectly ridden. Vicie Vance, off poorly, was pumped out in the early part of the race.

Winner—Ch. c. by Jils Johnson—Fruit of the Loom.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; next two driving. Egyptian Prince assumed an easy lead soon after the half had been run and had things his own way thereafter. Alaska came with a sharp turn in the last fifty yards nipping Tammany Chief on the post for second place. The latter was tiring badly at the end. Harry Preston seemed to have a chance at the stretch out, but died away thereafter. Excelsis was never a factor. It was reported that the winner had ran away a mile and a quarter before the race, a rumor which caused his price to increase from 5 to 12 to 1.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second easily. The Boer saved ground on all turns and came away when Wonderly gave him his head. He was doing his best in the last sixteenth to stall off Great American, who came again. The latter ran his race and had no mischances. John McGurk made up a lot of ground from a bad beginning and ran a winning race. Speak Easy showed early speed, but quit badly when challenged. The last three at the start got off too poorly to cut any figure in the result.

Easy Street showed early speed, but tired badly in the last eighth. Frank Mc saved ground on the stretch turn, but had to do his best at the end to save third place. She would have been beaten in another stride. Toddy Ladle was outrun in the early part of the race but finished strongly and would have won had Adams made his move sooner. Warranted had no mischances. Woodrice made up ground and finished strongly. He was pinched off at the start. Prince of Song was beaten after going seven-eighths.
